

Walking from the Railway Station to the National Badminton Museum at the National Badminton Centre

National Badminton Museum, Bradwell Road, Loughton Lodge, Milton Keynes MK8 9LA. Tel. No. 01908 268400.

- * If you walk out of the station turn left and walk alongside the shops and then the multi-story car park also on the left.
- * At the end of the multi-story car park go across the two car park roads towards the sports field. Turn left and walk towards the railway line.
- * When you reach the corner of the sports field turn right along the footpath.
- * At the end of this footpath turn left walking over the railway line and then the road dual carriageway.
- * At the end of the footpath bear right and, on the right, there is a cul-de-sac called Bignell Croft.
- * Walk down Bignell Croft, at the end there is a footpath which leads to a Bradwell Road.
- * Turn right at the end and walk under the road bridge.
- * You should now be able to see the National Badminton Centre on your right.

Sounds a little complicated but it really isn't.

It will probably take about 10 mins.
